What you are required to do before departure & after arrival

What	When	Remarks
Read this handbook very seriously	Right now	Welcome to join CCU's student exchange program. We're expecting all exchange students to arrive in Taiwan on Feb. 23 and to attend the Orientation on Feb. 26.
Do Medical Examination	Before applying for your visa	◆ International students who plan to stay in Taiwan for more than six months, are required to do a Health Certificate for Residence Application before arriving. You must hand in this health certificate when applying for the resident visa. Before submitting your visa application, be sure to make a photocopy of this health certificate in advance. CCU will also request this document from you. (Refer to the attached form or download it at: https://reurl.cc/eGaj3K) ◆ Those who plan to stay in Taiwan for less than six months are required to do a Health Certificate for Short-Term Students. The form can also be found at the above link. It requires the following items: ✓ Proof of Positive Measles and Rubella Antibody Titers or Measles and Rubella Immunization Certificates (alternative) ✓ Chest X-Ray for Tuberculosis If you already have a proof of Positive Measles and Rubella Antibody Titers or Measles and Rubella Immunization Certificates, you can just hand in a photocopy of this certificate to CCU. We'll arrange you to do the second item (Chest X-Ray for Tuberculosis) here. But if you NEVER did this kind of health check in your life, please print the enclosed form and get the medical examination done in your home country.

Apply for a Taiwanese visa	Before your departure	International exchange students who plan to stay in Taiwan for less than six months are required to apply for a visitor visa. According information is available at: ☞https://www.boca.gov.tw/cp-158-4342-a78b4-2.html ☞https://www.boca.gov.tw/cp-8-4336-94cdb-1.html Those who plan to stay in Taiwan for more than six months are required to apply for a resident visa. According information is available at: ☞https://www.boca.gov.tw/cp-166-284-6f5f7-2.html ☞https://www.boca.gov.tw/cp-9-186-c060a-1.html Students from China, Hong Kong, Macao..., we will contact you privately to help you apply for Taiwan Entry Permit (入台證).
Book your flight ticket to Taiwan	Before Your departure	Please buy a flight ticket for coming to Taiwan on Feb. 23. We strongly suggest you to choose the flight arriving in Taiwan during the daytime. Upon your arrival at CCU campus, you still need to go to the supermarket to purchase the articles for daily use.
Purchase Overseas Travel Insurance in your country	Before Your departure	Make sure that you have adequate health insurance which is valid during your exchange period at CCU, covering the medical expenses both for accident and sickness (outpatient and inpatient). You must hand in a photocopy of your insurance certificate to the CCU Office of International Affairs. Students who do not hand in this document will be forced to withdraw from the exchange/visiting program.

Send the scanned copy of designated documents to us via email	By Feb. 5, 2026	After doing the above procedure, please send the scanned copy of the following documents to us via email at: astevelyn@ccu.edu.tw and ciacoop@ccu.edu.tw ☐ Certificate of your medical examination ☐ Your visa ☐ Your flight ticket ☐ Your insurance certificate
Contact your buddy to know each other	In January and February	The CCU Office of International Affairs will assign a local student to be your buddy (learning partner), who will meet you on your arrival date at CCU and help you discover our beautiful campus. We'll let you contact with each other via email before the beginning of Spring Semester.
Take a look of Taiwanese news	At any time	Since you are going to spend one or two semesters in Taiwan, we suggest you to keep yourself informed of local news. You can find Taiwanese news written in English at: http://www.taipeitimes.com/
Fly to Taiwan	According to your flight schedule time	CHECKLIST for your boarding: ● Passport and Visa ● Flight ticket ● Cash: at least NTD10,000 (to pay for the SIM card, transportation and purchase your bedding & pillow) ◆ In order to avoid the African Swine Fever, those who bring meat products to enter Taiwan will be fined. The customs examine very strictly at Taiwanese airports. Therefore, when you come to Taiwan, please DO NOT BRING any processed meats, including sausages, cured meat, sliced meat, jerked meat, roast duck, instant noodles, and any kind of food made from meat (all kinds of meat are included), or you are subject to a fine of NTD 200,000-1,000,000.

		◆In case of the cancellation of your flights, be sure to inform CCU immediately. We must forward this information to the Dormitory Service Center.
Purchase the telecom SIM card for a local phone number	Upon your arrival at the airport in Taiwan	Please prepare the following to buy the SIM card: (Reminder: Please make sure that the SIM card you purchase includes sufficient data to cover at least your first ten days in Taiwan.) ● Passport & boarding pass ● Cash/ credit card NTD1,000 (valid for 30days) ● Students under the age of 18 are required to show a parental consent letter
Come to CCU campus and Check in to the dormitory	Feb. 23	The Office of International Affairs will book on-campus dormitory for all exchange students (quad room for undergraduate students; twin room for the graduate students). The dormitory room is only equipped with bedstead, closet, desk and chair. You have to purchase the mattress & pillow& bed quilt by yourself. There is a supermarket on the 1st floor at the Office of International Affairs Building, where you can purchase the articles for daily use. Regarding the transportation from the International Airport to CCU campus: ➤ Please refer to https://reurl.cc/b3xMmy ➤ If you want to arrange the pick-up service on your arrival date, the fee for a car from the TPE International Airport (Taoyuan) to CCU is around NTD5000. Accomplish the course selection process	From Feb. 23 to Mar. 06	You can find CCU's academic program at: ☞https://kiki.ccu.edu.tw/~ccmisp06/Course/index_e.html English-Taught Courses list is available at: ☞https://kiki.ccu.edu.tw/~ccmisp06/Course/all_english.html Chinese training courses list is available at: ☞ https://kiki.ccu.edu.tw/~ccmisp06/Course/Z121_e.html In addition to the courses at hosting department, it's also available for exchange/ visiting students to choose the class at our Center for Language Studies or other colleges/ departments (must be agreed by each lecturer). The CCU Center for Language Studies offers 3 Chinese Training Courses in the Spring Semester 2026, providing totally 7 credits. It's free for our international students. We sincerely encourage our exchange students to join at least one Chinese training course during their stay at CCU. On the other hand, it's not guaranteed for exchange students to choose the General Education Courses. This kind of courses is usually limited for enrolment quota. The other information regarding your course selection will be indicated and explained on the orientation day.

Course selection process

At CCU, all exchange/visiting students are required to select the courses via our website. Feel free to ask your buddy for assistance if you have any problem regarding the course selection process.

Please find the procedure for course selection as follows:

Step 1 Open the home page of Inter-Collegiate Course Selection System:

 <https://cross-school.ccu.edu.tw/index.php?language=c>

(If necessary, you can choose the English version)

Step 2 Click on "International Exchange Student"

Step 3 Enter your "student ID number" and "password"

(The default password is your student ID number. Please type your student ID number as the password when you login for the first time.)

Step 4 Modify your password

After login, the system would pop-out the screen requiring for password modification.

You have to modify your password according to the rule as follows: 4 to 10 digits, mixing capital and uncapitalized letters, number and special characters (!@#$%^_-), and avoid being same as your account.

Step 5 Select the courses

After the password revision, you can start to select the courses.

Step 6 After selecting your courses, print out the "Course Selection Application form".

Step 7 Ask the professors and the Director of your host department to make a stamp or sign on the sheet.

Step 8 Finally, hand in this sheet to the Office of Academic Affairs before the course selection deadline.

Note 1: The Course Selection period is indicated in CCU's Calendar. The Sheet for Course Selection should be signed by the professors & the director of your host department and be handed in to the coordinator at the Office of Academic Affairs (located on the 1st floor of Administration Building) before the deadline.

Note 2: The next day after the Office of Academic Affairs receive your Sheet for Course Selection, they will allow you to use the E-course Platform at:

<https://ecourse2.ccu.edu.tw/index.php>

Reminders for visa extension

International exchange students studying in Taiwan for less than six months are required to apply for a visitor visa before arriving Taiwan. After your arriving, you cannot apply for the Alien Resident Certificate. You need to apply for extension before your visa expiry date through National Immigration Agency. If the extension is not done before the expiry date, you would have to leave the country.

Required documents for visa extension:

- Application form
- 1 photograph, passport
- Student ID card
- Fee NTD600

International students who plan to study in Taiwan for more than six months are required to apply for a Resident Visa before arriving Taiwan.

◆ Resident Visa:

This is a long-term visa with which the students can stay in Taiwan for more than 180 days. With such a visa, the student should apply for Alien Resident Certificate in National Immigration Agency within 30 days after entering the country. The application fee is NTD1,000. The ARC is your ID card in Taiwan, and also a multiple re-entry permit. Please keep it very well during your stay. If you lost it, you must pay NTD1,000 to apply for a new one.

- #### ◆ Six months after receiving the ARC, It's mandatory for you to join Taiwan's National Health Insurance. In other words, from the 7th month of your stay in Taiwan, you have to pay about NTD826 per month for the National Health Insurance. But during the first 6 months of your stay, you can leave Taiwan for only 1 time and not more than 1 month, or you will be unqualified to join the National Health Insurance. Please think of this reason if you want to leave Taiwan during the summer/ winter vacation.

Required documents for the application of ARC

- Application form (with a photo in correct format)
- Passport & resident visa
- Photocopy of student ID card
- Operation fee NTD1,000

Photograph specs: Colored photograph, front head and shoulder, taken within 6 months, without hat and glasses, 4.5cm x 3.5cm, the total length from the top of the head to the jaw within 3.2-3.6cm, and white background. Remember to tell the photo shop your purpose of this picture.
